Looking Forward to What God Has For Me in the Coming Year

Merry Christmas, everybody! This is the season of giving, forgiving, loving, and peace. It's the celebration of Jesus's birth. We all need to be thankful for what He has done for us in the past and is doing for us now.

I want to first of all say thank you to Hobbs Fiber for donating batting to me throughout the years. Due to new ownership, they are no longer able to continue making donations. If anyone else out there would be able to donate rolls of batting, it would be much appreciated.

As most of you know, I have been praying to be able to move to Branson, MO. Recently, I thought I may have found the house, but it already had a contract on it. It had all of the things I needed, but not all of the things I wanted in a house. God wants me to have first best, not second best.

God said to be specific and write down what you want. Here is what I am looking for in a house: three to four bedrooms, two baths, double sink, tub, and shower in master bath, a large walk-in closet off of the master bath, nice size living room with fireplace and mantle, kitchen with a window above the sink and an island with cabinets, lazy susan, dishwasher, garbage disposal, lots of cabinets, electric stove with burners, another large room like a family room/ great room (or even a loft upstairs) that can be used as a sewing room, pantry and laundry room, two car garage for storage, wide window sills, a sunroom where I can bring the windows up and down, privacy fence in the back, ceiling fans, lots of closets, an entry hall/ foyer with coat closet, variegated gray carpet, no basement, not on a hill. Above all, I want a place where I can be safe and be used of the Lord in community.

I ask you to please stand and believe with me. I recently created a GoFundMe to help me raise money for a down payment to make my house payments manageable and to be debt-free as soon as possible. There will be a plaque in my front hall with the names of all of the donors so that they can be prayed for daily. Thank you all for considering helping me buy my first real house. If you are interested in making a donation, please follow the link to my GoFundMe:

Texas has been good to me, but it is the right time for me to move on to a new place with new opportunities. I know the Lord is opening all of these doors. I will never forget the friends I have made here. A friend is a friend for life.

I love you all.
