ALLOW GOD TO USE YOU TO TOUCH OTHER PEOPLE'S LIVES

Howdy everybody! It's been a full busy wonderful year! Reflecting back on this past year, most of you know and have found me through the Texas Country Reporter YouTube viewing (now at approximately 850,000 –). We're going for the million!

I want to take this time to thank you for all your e-mail comments, compliments and praises. This has opened up many doors for travel and speaking engagements. From New England to New Mexico, from Wisconsin to Alabama, I have traveled thirteen states this year! One of the most memorable moments of this past year was to go to Cullman, Alabama after the horrific tornadoes. I was welcomed with open arms, awarded a beautiful plaque and the Key to the City by the Mayor of Cullman. I was so honored and humbled.

I want to first and foremost, give God all the praise for His workings in my life. And, for you - - all of you - - who have hosted me in your homes, I know what a princess feels like! The warmth and the love and the service in your hearts have made me feel so welcome. To all of you who have asked me to come and share my life, teaching you how I quilt - - from quilt guilds to schools to churches, universities, etc., I am so honored! And you, all of you, who have sent boxes of supplies, purchased quilts; you are so special to me. Thank YOU for being in my life!

A lot of you have shared your lives, your tragedies, your heartbreaks with me, I am so humbled. You have become a part of me as I make quilts in memory of your trials and triumphs and I know they will be a comfort as I work them into my custom designed quilts. It does take time, but time worthy of the memories.

There are two book authors, one American author and one from England, who are including me in their upcoming new inspirational books, one written and one in progress. They will be on my website and available to you as they are released.

Speaking of England, one of my lifetime dreams has been to one day visit England and I now have the opportunity to live that dream! I will be going in April 2012 with my friend, Peggy, for two weeks. One of the two weeks is being hosted by my English friend; the other week is still in need of a host. Now comes the part where I need your prayers for the expenses this trip will incur. If any of you feel led to help financially or with air miles, it will be truly appreciated. I feel the need to make my reservations as soon as possible. The opportunities this trip promises are amazing and may open doors of ministry for other places.

Please continue to view my website for new and amazing quilts - - and to keep my schedule before you. You will find my schedule on my Ministry Page of the website. Some of the places other than England in April - - and not yet on the website, include March - Las Vegas, July - Kansas City, dates not yet confirmed. If I'm going to be in your area, please feel invited to come and bring friends!! This is for YOU! Remember, "Greater is He that is in me than he that is in the world". This is God's work through me, and He gets all the praise.

Some of the goals I have for the coming year are prayerfully to be on a major nationwide morning television show, Life Today with Betty and James Robertson, and the 700 Club. As most of you know, I walk by faith, so I'm claiming it. I am also still standing and believing God for a future museum and gift shop - - and a husband!! - - to join me in love and God's work. So - - again! - - your prayers are truly appreciated!

As we approach the Christmas season, many of you have asked me what I need for Christmas! The website always explains the items I use in my work and ministry. Thank you for asking. Remember! Jesus is the Reason for the season. Give Him the honor and the praise for all your blessings and always show forgiveness to those who have wronged you. Put the past behind and walk forward with His leadership.

I look forward to hearing from you - I'm always here for you - as God's servant. May the Lord richly bless you with God's everlasting love.
